

FRESNO, CA - Tomorrow, Congressman Jim Costa (D-Fresno) will be attending a joint meeting of the Fresno County Board of Supervisors and the Fresno City Council regarding homelessness in Fresno County. At 1:30pm, Costa will introduce the keynote speaker, Mr. Philip Mangano, who was appointed by President George W. Bush in 2002 to serve as Executive Director of the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness. Mangano is addressing the Board and the Council to discuss ways to combat homelessness in Fresno and Fresno County.

The agenda for the meeting can be found on the City Council's website: <http://www.fresno.gov/Government/CityCouncil/Default.htm>

. For more information about the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness, please visit

<http://www.ich.gov/>

Following the meeting, Costa will be available to the press to discuss homelessness in Fresno County.

WHO: Rep. Jim Costa, D-Fresno

WHAT: Fresno County Board of Supervisors and Fresno City Council Joint Meeting on Homelessness

WHEN: Friday, December 7th, 2007 1:30pm to 3:30pm

WHERE: Cornerstone Conference Center

1525 Fulton Street

Fresno, CA 93721